

A VENUE FOR ALL OCCASIONS

Located in the heart of downtown along an enchanting bend of the San Antonio River Walk, the Jack Guenther Pavilion at the Briscoe Western Art Museum combines history, culture, art, and the city's timeless charm.

Historical and modern indoor spaces pair beautifully with a stunning, star-studded outdoor sculpture garden and river walk patio to provide guests with an exquisite experience.

MAKE A LASTING IMPRESSION

When you book your special day at the Jack Guenther Pavilion, you are stepping into an inimitable mix of past and present, reflecting San Antonio's contemporary culture and historical heritage. The three-story Pavilion is adjacent to the Briscoe Western Art Museum, which is housed in a meticulously restored historic 1930s art deco era building.

With stunning vistas and all the amenities needed to leave a lasting impression on guests, the Jack Guenther Pavilion is flanked by the McNutt Sculpture Garden, a downtown oasis featuring a majestic canopy of oak trees, indigenous gardens, a grand pergola, and iconic sculptures by world-renowned artists.

LOCATION & PARKING

Located on the San Antonio River Walk, the Jack Guenther Pavilion is steps away from the historic Arneson River Theatre. With proximity to Hemisfair, La Villita, the Alamo, and the centuries-old San Fernando Cathedral, the Pavilion puts you and your guests at the heart of San Antonio's cultural epicenter.

Parking is available in the Riverbend Parking Garage across the street or nearby conveniently located surface lots. Valet parking options are available for event rentals. Looking for a stylish way to transport guests to or from your event? Ask us about booking private river barges.
